With dramatic, imposing beauty everywhere you look, Norway's Lofoten islands are like nowhere else on earth. From idyllic fishing villages to remarkable beaches that seem so out of place in Arctic Norway, the Norwegian islands of Lofoten have it all. Experience the midnight sun, charming villages, and incredible nature.

We have a full day of scenic sightseeing tours in Lofoten. The National Scenic Routes are beautiful driving tours that are a little out of the ordinary. There are many interesting stops on the way: REINEHALSEN is one of Norway's most famous photo points where we will stop for photo opportunities.

RAMBERGSTRANDA is a beautiful beach, Nusfjord is one of Norway's oldest and best-preserved fishing villages...

We will also get to see Lofoten island from different perspective. Experiencing Lofoten by RIB enables you to learn a lot about the nature, wildlife and settlement in Lofoten while getting lots of fresh sea air. Abandoned fishing villages, countless small islands and skerries, abundant bird colonies and perhaps the chances are high that you will see an eagle or more. It's the fourth largest eagle in the world with a wingspan up to 265 cm and a weight almost at 7 kg.

This is but a sample of what you can expect to see on a RIB safari. On the way back we will visit the famous Viking museum. The chieftain house at Borg is the largest Viking era house ever discovered. We will take an excursion to Reine, one of the most picturesque place in Lofoten island. Dinner and overnight. DAY 9 (September 26) Tromso

Breakfast at the hotel in Tromso. Located 400km north of the Arctic Circle at 69°N, the small city of Tromsø bills itself as Norway's gateway to the Arctic, and there's definitely more than a hint of polar atmosphere around town. Surrounded by chilly fjords and craggy peaks that remain snowcapped for much of the year, Tromsø sits on the eastern edge of Tromsøya, and is linked to the mainland by a gracefully arched bridge.

The Arctic Cathedral:

Today we will have a full day of sightseeing in Tromso. We will check out the iconic Arctic Cathedral, with its beautiful stained-glass mosaic also called the Tromsdalen Church, which was dedicated on November 19, 1965. The cathedral is a landmark visible from the Tromsø Sound, the Tromsø Bridge and when landing in Tromsø by aircraft. The 11 aluminium-coated concrete panels on each side of the roof provide the cathedral's form. The glass mosaic is one of artist Victor Sparre's most prominent works. It depicts God's hand from which departs three rays of light: one through Jesus, one through a woman and one through a man. The glass work contains many symbols and generates considerable attention among tourists.

Cable Car:

For a fine view of the city and the midnight sun, take the cable car to the top of Mt Storsteinen (421m). There's a terrace and (pricey) restaurant at the top, from where a network of hiking routes radiates.

Northern Lights:

In Tromsø there is always a good chance of seeing the northern lights in the period September until April. These are the months of the year when it is dark enough outside to see the lights dance across the sky.

The Arctic Cathedral

Northern Lights

Tromsø is in the centre of the northern lights' oval, which means we can see the northern lights even when the activity is low. The northern lights, also known as the aurora borealis, is our favourite natural phenomenon. It is unpredictable and surprising. It can appear almost out of nothing, fade away and reappear in just minutes. Experiencing the northern lights is something you will remember for the rest of your life.

After dinner we will spend the night chasing Lady Green aka the Northern Lights with a private photographer. If we are lucky we will enjoy and experience the spectacular show of the Northern Lights. Dinner and overnight in Tromso.

Nordkapp – the North Cape – is the end of the world

We proceed to our North Cape excursion. Nordkapp, also called North Cape is Norway's most northern part and is one of the most popular travel destination of Scandinavia —and for good reason. The North Cape is a monumental natural experience. Along with breathtaking views and unusual climatic conditions, the dramatic cliff allows you to stand at Europe's northern end. The famous point of Nordkapp is the 307 meters (1,007 ft) high cliff, often called as the northernmost point of Europe. It's an unmatched experience to be standing near the northern edge of Norway and look out over the Barents Sea under the polar sky. The cape is marked with a famous globe monument, which demands a selfie or two... or five. When you're ready, head inside North Cape Hall to warm up and learn about life in the High Arctic through a short film and a variety of exhibits. Having reached the northernmost point of our voyage, we'll turn around and begin our drive to Alta (about 3 hours), arriving in the evening.

Alta - the City of the Northern Lights

At 70 degrees north, this town is still far above the Arctic Circle. The area is known for particularly good northern lights visibility, so keep your camera ready. If the skies are clear and the conditions are right, you should be able to snap some amazing shots of the lights dancing above.

Alta became the epicenter of ground-breaking research of the aurora borealis between the 19th and 20th centuries.

Tonight is another chance to look out for Northern Lights during the night.

Dinner and overnight in Alta.

Alta - The City of the Northern Lights

DAY 12 (September 29) Drive from Alta to Kirkenes

Breakfast at the hotel. Arrive in Kirkenes in the afternoon.

Kirkenes - The Red King Crab City

Kirkenes is located in the extreme northeastern part of Norway on the Bøkfjord, a branch of the Varangerfjord, near the Russian border. We're about 250 miles north of the Arctic Circle and actually as far east as St. Petersburg. Most of the approximately 7,000 inhabitants are of Norwegian background, while a minority is Sami. Others originate from Finland and some 500 immigrants have recently arrived from Russia.

In Kirkenes, we will join a Red King Crab Safari and you'll have the chance to meet and eat this gigantic - and delicious - crab. The red King Crab is not only the biggest, but also the most delicious shellfish you will ever have the chance of tasting. Now it's time for you to make your own deadliest catch, and have it for a delicious dinner.

Kirkenes is the home of a fantastic Kirkenes Snow Hotel. You will have the option (additional expense) to experience your overnight stay in the Snow Hotel or the regular hotel (no added expense). The Snow Hotel is made entirely from snow and ice. Even your free drink comes in a glass carved from ice! This will be a nice experience for once in a life-time! Overnight in Kirkenes.
